

I think that you should leave the do not call list and law that New Jersey has the way it is. It is much better than the national one and helps to protect us better. Maybe you should worry less about the Telemarketers and more about every ones privacy. We want it left the way it is.....